

ORGANIZATIONS THAT CAN HELP: CHILDREN'S BEHAVIORAL HEALTH IN FULTON COUNTY, ATLANTA, AND ALL OF GEORGIA.

Call the Georgia Crisis and Access line at (800) 715-4225 for help at any time.

Fulton County and Metro Atlanta

Chris 180 – provides mental health, substance abuse, and healthy living programs, including The Spot Drop-In Center.

(404) 486-9034

www.chris180.org

clubhouse@chris180.org

United Way of Greater Atlanta – connects you with mental health services, disaster services, housing, and legal services.

(404) 527-7200 or 211

www.unitedwayatlanta.org

Georgia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities (DBHDD) – oversees public mental health services for Metro Atlanta.

(404) 244-5050

www.dbhdd.georgia.gov/region-3

Atlanta Legal Aid – provides free legal services for people living on low incomes.

(404) 524-5811

www.atlantalegalaid.org

Visit <https://namiga.org/community-resources/> for NAMI Georgia's more complete list of behavioral health help.

All of Georgia

United Way – connects you with mental health services, disaster services, housing, and legal services.

Call 211

www.unitedway.org

Georgia Advocacy Office (GAO) – provides services to children with disabilities in Georgia.

(800) 537-2329

www.thegao.org

Parent to Parent of Georgia – network of “parent mentors.” They help other caregivers and children with disabilities.

(800) 229-2038

www.p2pga.org

Georgia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities (DBHDD) – oversees public mental health services for Georgia.

(404) 657-2252

www.dbhdd.georgia.gov

Georgia Department of Education (GADOE) Division for Special Education – gives information about children's rights in schools and parent's rights.

(404) 656-3963

www.gadoe.org

Georgia Legal Services -provides free legal services to Georgians living on low incomes.

(404) 206-5175

www.glsp.org