

October 2017

Around the state with Georgia Appleseed!

Program staff have been busy this month traveling around the state, fostering connections and furthering our mission to increase justice in Georgia. Staff attorney Terrence Wilson has enjoyed representing Georgia

Appleseed at various events, including the 75th Georgia NAACP Annual Conference and a panel discussion about dismantling the school-to-prison-pipeline at Emory University School of Law. To stay updated on our program staff's community engagement, follow us on Facebook!

CONGRATS
BOARD DIRECTOR
MATT BOZZELLI
2017 ATL
40 UNDER 40
CLICK TO READ MORE

Staff Attorney Terrence Wilson joins NJJN's 2017-18 cohort of Youth Justice Leadership Institute Fellows. Learn more about his work here.

Georgia Appleseed is grateful to have 100% giving support from its Board of Directors.

CLICK HERE TO DONATE

YPC FALL
FRIENDRAISER

Thursday, November 16, 2017
6:00 – 7:30pm @ Polsinelli PC

Hosted by Georgia Appleseed's Young Professionals Council

Young professionals in all fields are welcome to join Georgia Appleseed's Young Professional's Council for fall cocktails and light appetizers, and learn more about upcoming YPC programming and volunteer opportunities. RSVP at bit.ly/ypcfundraiser.

We are excited to welcome Ross Burris as our new YPC President!

A new home for Georgia Appleseed at Taylor English, LLP. Read more here.

Save the Date
Georgia Appleseed's
2018 Good Apple Event

THE EVENING
of APRIL 18th

Follow us:

Georgia Appleseed seeks justice through law and policy reform to find workable solutions that improve the lives of Georgians throughout the state. Contribute to the mission by donating.