Thanks to You, We're Celebrating 5 Years!

Georgia Appleseed was founded in 2005 on a new dynamic in volunteerism, harnessing the expertise of lawyers and other professionals to tackle tough social justice issues in Georgia by effecting law and policy.

Today, our workforce proudly includes 700 volunteers who have shared their time and talents on our projects over the years!

Our sincerest appreciation to each of you.

Special thanks to the volunteers from these law firms and others for leading the way on our current projects:

Alston & Bird, Arnall Golden Gregory, Association of Corporate Counsel, Atlanta Bar Association Real Estate Section, Baker Donelson, DLA Piper, Emory University School of Law, Hunton & Williams, Jones Day, Kilpatrick Stockton, King & Spalding, McKenna Long & Aldridge, Mercer University School of Law, Nelson Mullins, PricewaterhouseCoopers, Schiff Hardin, Seyfarth Shaw, Smith Gambrell, Sutherland Asbill & Brennan, Troutman Sanders, University of Georgia School of Law, Young Professionals Council.

As a volunteer invested in our efforts, who better understands the value of our work? We invite you now to multiply your investment by becoming a Core Supporter, helping to sustain our projects and reach new milestones.
