New Georgia Appleseed Project Access to Justice for Georgia Voters: Election Protection Project

The right of all eligible citizens to vote is fundamental to American democracy, and any interference with the exercise of this right is an injustice. That's why Georgia Appleseed is working jointly with the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law to coordinate a NEW Election Protection Project in anticipation of the 2012 General Election.

In conjunction with the Lawyers' Committee, Georgia Appleseed will prepare a series of recommended best practices designed to avoid the recurring voting problems in Georgia. These recommendations will then be provided to election officials in an effort to alleviate voter access issues in our state. Read more...

The Election Protection Project will be spearheaded by Board Liaison Judy O'Brien.
