

Final List (March 22, 2007)

Interview list for each of the 10 Judicial Districts:

1. Juvenile Court Judge
2. Prosecutor in the Juvenile Court
3. Defense Attorney in the Juvenile Court
4. Parent Attorney in the Juvenile Court
5. Child Attorney or Attorney GAL in deprivation cases
6. SAAG for DFACS
7. CASA
8. DFACS Supervisor/casemanager
9. Juvenile Court Administrator
10. Juvenile Court Probation Officer
11. Mental Health Provider for children
12. Police officer who focuses on delinquency/truants
13. Parent whose child has been through the delinquency side of the court
14. Parent of a deprived child Young adult who has aged out of foster care
15. Older child in foster care
16. Older child who went through the court on delinquency
17. Member of the business community (local chamber of commerce?)
18. Victim of juvenile delinquency
19. Member of the Georgia House of Representatives (Republican)<sup>1</sup>
20. Member of the Georgia House of Representatives (Democrat)
21. Member of the Georgia Senate (Democrat)
22. Member of the Georgia House (Republican)

Interviews to be handled by education leaders on the project (from each district)

1. School Board Member
2. Middle School Principal
3. School social worker (the one who typically takes the truancies to court in some jurisdictions)

Interview List for the Lead Firm handing the summary report

1. The lead representatives to the Justice for Youth Coalition (this is where we would be interviewing the heads of DJJ, DFACS, CYCC) (Total membership of the Coalition covers many agencies)
2. A representative from First Lady Perdue's Children's Cabinet.
3. One of the leaders of the 2002 Governor's Action Group for Safe Children.
4. A representative from the Chief Justice's Committee on Children
5. Governor's legal counsel
6. President of the Council of Juvenile Court Judges
7. President of the Council of Superior Court Judges

---

<sup>1</sup> If possible, select the a legislator from the district who sits on the House/Senate Judiciary, Special Judiciary and the Children and Youth Committees – the chair should be interviewed.